New component "Apps Live Optimization" has been added to improve PC responsiveness by optimizing CPU time between running processes.

Added automatic cleaning of the leftovers of deleted software "on the fly" after uninstalling.

Now the program offers the user to delete old downloads with his permission.

Added the ability to notify about the release of new versions of software and help in updating it.

The program will show a weekly report on the work performed (how much digital "trash" has been cleaned, problems fixed and threats eliminated in a week).
